

UNITED STATES ARMY
LTC Thomas B. Gloor
Product Manager, PM DCGS-A Intel Fusion

LTC Thomas B. Gloor, a native of Waterbury, Vermont was commissioned into the Infantry Branch in 1990 and received a Bachelor of Arts in History and Political Science from James Madison University in Virginia. He earned a Masters Degree in Procurement and Contract Management from the Florida Institute of Technology in 2001.

His military education includes the Infantry Officer Basic Course, Airborne & Jumpmaster School, Ranger School, Air Assault School, Military Intelligence Advance Course, Counter Intelligence Officer Course, Material Acquisition Management Course, Program Management Course and the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College (CGSC).

LTC Gloor has held numerous military command, staff and acquisition positions. He began his career as an Infantry Platoon Leader in the 2nd “Commando” Brigade of the Army's 10th Mountain Division (Light) at Fort Drum, New York. While a member of the 2nd BN 14th Infantry Regiment he served in numerous positions including Rifle Platoon Leader, Mortar Platoon Leader, Company Executive Officer and as the 2nd BDE Assistant S3. While in the infantry he deployed on numerous contingency missions including Refugee Relief in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, Operation Restore Hope/TF 2-14th Mogadishu, Somalia, Operation Uphold Democracy, Cap Haitian, Haiti and Hurricane Andrew Relief, Homestead Florida. After promotion to Captain he attended the Military Intelligence transition, Advance and Counterintelligence Course at Fort Huachuca, AZ, and was assigned to 3rd Special Forces Group (Airborne) at Fort Bragg as the Group Counterintelligence Officer, the Military Intelligence Detachment Commander and Battalion S2.

His acquisition career began in 1998 with an assignment at HQ TRADOC as a R&D Operations Officer working on the Commanding General’s Army Transformation Task Force responsible for the Stryker BDE Organizational and Operational document. His other Acquisition Assignments include Fielding Officer PM Intelligence and Effects, Assistant Product Manager for Prophet Ground SIGINT, Assistant Product Manager for FCS (BCT) Intelligence, Surveillance & Reconnaissance. LTC Gloor most recently completed a tour as AMC’s “Single Face to the Field” at Fort Drum responsible for integration of Acquisition, Logistics & Technology for the Army Field Support Battalion. LTC Gloor currently serves as Product Manager for the Distributed Common Ground System – Army Intelligence Fusion (PdM, DCGS-A IF) and is responsible for integration, modernization and worldwide fielding of the Army’s Flagship Intelligence & Electronic Warfare system.

LTC Gloor’s awards include the Army Meritorious Service Award with five oak leaf clusters, the Army Commendation Award with five oak leaf clusters, the National Defense Service Award with service star, the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal with service star, the Armed Forces Service Medal, the Overseas Service Ribbon, the Valorous Unit Award, Humanitarian Service Medal with two service stars, the United Nations Medal, the Ranger Tab, Combat Infantryman’s Badge, Senior Parachutist Wings and the Air Assault Badge.